Nautilus

An Erasmus+ sport project for the social inclusion of people with special abilities through sport, namely swimming

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

What is Nautilus ?

Nautilus is an Erasmus+ SPORT project funded by the European Commission. Nautilus aims to address the challenges of the social inclusion of people with special abilities through sport, namely swimming.

Nautilus is in line with the European Policies in the field of Sport as a mean for the promotion of healthy lifestyle and the social inclusion of subjects that are in risk of social exclusion.

The European Union promotes the sharing and promotion of good practices, and this is the basic objective of this project.

Which are the participating countries?

The consortium is composed of the following organizations:

1. Association APDV Murgano, a non-profit Swimming Association from Enna, Italy, as the Coordinator
2. The Directorate of Secondary Education of Pieria, a Secondary Education public Establishment from Katerini, Greece, as partner
3. Associazione Essenia UETP, University and Enterprise Training Partnership from Salerno, Italy, as partner
4. Asterias Sports club (Swimming Department) from Katerini, Greece as partner and
5. Edirne Youth and Supporting Disabled Association, a non-profit Social Association from Edirne Turkey as partner.

Which are Nautilus' objectives?

Through Nautilus the consortium will identify, share and promote:

- The Good practices in social inclusion of people with special abilities through sport, namely swimming
- The Good practices in how swimming contributes to the mental and physical wellbeing and
- The Good practices in sports at school, how education can promote the social inclusion of students with special abilities through swimming.

The project will aim to confront ideas and methods in different areas related to sport and physical activity.

Nautilus' deliverable products:
